Constantinople, January 10. The Plague still continues, but it is hoped that the present remarkably cold Weather will destroy the Infection.

St. James's, February 12.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, has been presented to the King by his Grace the Duke of Chandos, Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, and High Steward of the said City: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, in Common-Council assembled, fully sensible of the many Blessings this Country has received and still enjoys under the happy Auspices of your illustrious House, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmest Expressions of Gratitude for the same, and with fresh Assurances of our inviolable Attachment to the Interests and Security of your Majesty's Crown and Person.

We could not help being alarmed at the violent Attack upon the Privileges of the East India Company, in a Bill which would have constituted a new executive Power that must have been followed by the most alarming Tendency, in direct Violation of the Faith of Parliament.

With Satisfaction we observe, that a Measure so productive of pernicious Consequences to the Liberties of a free People, hath been timely checked; and we flatter ourselves that its Effect will preserve intire the excellent Ballance in our so much admired Constitution, and secure it against dangerous Innovations.

We humbly thank your Majesty for exerting your Royal Prerogative which forms a Part of this Constitution; and we beg leave to assure you, we shall at all Times be ready and firm to support your Majesty in the just and legal Exercise thereof.

We ardently pray, That it would please the Almighty to send Unanimity to this distracted Country, and that a perfect Harmony might reign reign in your Majeſty's Councils, free from all Corruption and ambitious Faction.

Given under our Common Seal in our Council-Chamber, this Eleventh Day of February, in the Year of our Lord, 1784.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs' and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord Robert Spencer, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in Common Council aſſembled.

IMpreſſed with the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude for the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government, and uninfluenced by any Motive or Conſideration whatever but the Welfare and Proſperity of our Country, we beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt cordial Thanks for your Majeſty's late Goodneſs and Wiſdom in removing from your Councils thoſe Miniſters, whoſe Conduct, in our Opinion, had ſo ſtrongly marked a Diſpoſition to invade the ſacred Rights and Privileges of the Crown, and endanger the Liberties of their Fellow Subjects: At the ſame Time we intreat your Majeſty to accept our hearty Congratulations upon the Appointment of a Miniſtry, who, we have Reaſon to believe, are equal in Ability and Virtue to the important Truſt they have undertaken, and in every Reſpect deſerving the Confidence of the People at large, ſo generally beſtowed upon them. We take the Liberty of aſſuring your Majeſty we ſhall ever be ready to ſupport the Conſtitutional Exerciſe of all your Royal Prerogatives; and that we will not ceaſe to implore the Bleſſing of Almighty God upon a Prince, whoſe exemplary Life and Character have ſo juſtly rendered Him the Object of univerſal Veneration and Eſteem.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Council Chamber in Oxford, this Eleventh Day of February, in the Twenty-fourth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The Two following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have by his Lordſhip been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty has been pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Juſtice, divers Burgeſſes, Principal Inhabitants, and Tradeſmen of the Borough of Devizes, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with full Aſſurances of our moſt cordial Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and our Reverence for the Conſtitution as eſtabliſhed by the glorious Revolution.

We beg Leave to make our moſt ſincere Thanks to your Majeſty for the late Exerciſe of your Royal Prerogative, in a Manner ſo conſtitutional, and ſo evidently intended for the Good and Safety of your Subjects; aſſuring your Majeſty, that we ſhall on all Occaſions be ready to uſe every Exertion, and to contribute the utmoſt in our Power to ſupport your Majeſty's juſt Rights, and the true Intereſt, Honour and Dignity of your Crown.

We beg Leave to thank your Majeſty for having removed your late Miniſters, and having appointed others, who we are perſuaded poſſeſs the Confidence of your Subjects: And we aſſure your Majeſty of our Reſolution to unite in the Support of your Royal Prerogative and our happy Conſtitution.

May your Majeſty long reign over your loyal and faithful Subjects.

[Signed by 123 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, beg Leave, in the preſent critical and diſtracted State of Affairs, to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt unfeigned Affection to your Royal Perſon and Government, and unalterable Attachment to the free Conſtitution of this Country.

We have beheld with the deepeſt Concern an Attempt made by your late Miniſters (in a Bill to correct Abuſes in India) to acquire a Power, that muſt eventually have endangered the very Exiſtence of the Conſtitution: We therefore thank your Majeſty for your paternal Care in the Removal of thoſe Miniſters.

We are fully perſuaded, that the Powers with which your Majeſty is conſtitutionally inveſted are united with the Freedom and Happineſs of your People; and we will always zealouſly ſupport ſuch an Exerciſe of them, as may give Stability to your Majeſty's Government, and Proſperity to your Kingdoms.

[Signed by 124 Perſons.]

The Three following Addreſſes were preſented to the King by Henry Duncombe, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of York, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leeds, in the County of York, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leeds, in the County of York, in Common Council aſſembled, hold it our Duty, at this alarming Juncture, to expreſs our Affection to your Royal Perſon and Government, and our ardent Attachment to the Conſtitution of this Kingdom.

We beg to offer our faithful Aſſurances to your Majeſty, that we will ſupport your Majeſty in ſuch legal Exerciſe of the Prerogative of your Crown, as may be neceſſary to inſure Stability to your Government, and Security to your People.

Given under our Common Seal, the 7th Day of February, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four.

By Order of Court,

Tho. Barſtow, Common Clerk.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal, and dutiful Subjects, Inhabitants of the Borough of Leeds, at a Time when the Animoſities of Parties ſeem to endanger a Conſtitution which we have in the higheſt Veneration, hold it our Duty in this Manner to expreſs our Affection for your Royal Perſon and Government, and our ardent Attachment to that Conſtitution.

At a Time like this, when our Country ſtands in Need of Unanimity, and the Exertion of the Abilities of all honeſt Men, we ſincerely hope that all Party Animoſities may be laid aſide, and ſuch an Adminiſtration formed, as may hold forth the Abilities of all Parties in Support of the Intereſts of this Country. But ſhould that not be the Caſe, we beg your Majeſty will accept our faithful Aſſurances of ſupporting ſuch legal Exerciſe of the Prerogatives of the Crown, as may be neceſſary to reſtore Stability to your Government, and Security to your People.

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town and Pariſh of Halifax, in the Weſt Riding of the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Pariſh of Halifax, in the Weſt Riding of the County of York, think it our Duty, in this critical Moment, to approach your Majeſty's Preſence with our humble and ſincere Aſſurances of Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

We have obſerved, with much Indignation and Concern, that although every Branch of the Legiſlature has declared the Military, Commercial and Civil Intereſts of the Community to require immediate Attention and Arrangement, the Propoſals which your Majeſty has moſt graciouſly ſubmitted to the Houſe of Commons, relative to theſe Points, have been poſtponed for the Diſcuſſion of other Queſtions, ſome of them of partial Concern, and the reſt tending to abridge the conſtitutional Extent of your Majeſty's Authority, and dangerous to the general Liberties of the People.

We conſider the Power of diſſolving Parliaments at Diſcretion as the moſt ſacred and ſalutary Branch of the Royal Prerogative. Subject to ſuch a Check, the Repreſentatives of the People cannot long betray the Public Intereſts, without it, the Apprehenſion of a Septennial Servitude, in a Moment like the preſent, would produce Alarms, juſt indeed, but dreadful, becauſe incompatible with Public Peace. It is with infinite Gratitude and Satisfaction therefore, that we acknowledge your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Magnanimity, in reſiſting the Effects of theſe Diſcuſſions, and diſcountenancing the Authors and Promoters of them.

In the farther Exertion of your Powers on this Occaſion, we ſhall look up to your Majeſty, as the Guardian of the Conſtitution; and we venture to add, that ſhould your Majeſty appeal at length to the Event of a General Election, a Conduct ſo worthy the King and Father of his Subjects, would receive the moſt animated Support of a grateful and liberated People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the Borough of Ripon, and of the Gentlemen and Clergy reſiding therein, has been preſented to the King by the Honourable Frederick Robinſon, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the Borough of Ripon, in the County of York, in Common Council aſſembled, and of the Gentlemen and Clergy reſiding within the ſaid Borough.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the ſaid Borough of Ripon, in Common Council aſſembled, and the Gentlemen and Clergy reſiding therein, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, to expreſs our moſt grateful Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, and Determination of ſupporting your Government on Conſtitutional Principles.

We ſincerely truſt that your Majeſty, under the Direction of Divine Providence, will be aſſiſted by a firm and permanent Adminiſtration, whoſe Wiſdom may be equal to direct the important Concerns of theſe Kingdoms at this critical Conjuncture of Affairs, in whoſe Integrity your People may confide.

We have ſeen, with the utmoſt Concern, an Attempt made by your Majeſty's late Miniſters to deprive a great Commercial Body of their Chartered Rights, which we humbly conceive to be repugnant to the Principles of a free Government.

We therefore rejoice, that your Majeſty has diſmiſſed your late Miniſters from their Employments, and appointed others, in whoſe Abilities, Honeſty and Integrity we fully rely.

We therefore heartily pray, that your Majeſty may long live to reign over a free and loyal People.

Given under the Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the ſaid Borough, and under the Hands of the Gentlemen and Clergy reſiding therein, this Second Day of February, 1784.

By Order,
H. Atkinſon, Common Clerk.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Traders of the Town and Neighbourhood of Wakefield, has been preſented to the King by the Rev. Dr. Bacon, accompanied by Major General Tottenham, John Milnes, Eſq; and other Gentlemen, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty has been pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Traders of the Town and Neighbourhood of Wakefield in the Weſt Riding of the County of York, aſſembled by public Notice at the Town-Hall there, on Friday the Sixth Day of February, 1784.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Traders of this Town and Neighbourhood, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, to expreſs, at this alarming Moment, our ſincere and uninfluenced Aſſurances of Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, and of Zeal for our excellent Conſtitution: We cannot therefore but highly diſapprove of any Intention of Men to erect a new Power which appears to us as invading your Majeſty's Prerogative, abrogating the Privileges and Rights of the Eaſt India Company, and ſubverting our moſt valuable Conſtitution; we therefore truſt that your Majeſty's paternal Care will ſteadily ſupport ſuch Miniſters as will inviolably adhere to the true Conſtitution of this Kingdom, firmly vindicate your Majeſty's juſt Prerogative, the due Privileges of Parliament, and the Rights and Liberties of your People: We pray that the Almighty that He will prolong your Reign, render your Majesty the happy Instrument of your People's Welfare and Union, and in their Security and Peace, establish and preserve your own.

The following Address of the Inhabitants of Lancaster, has been presented to the King by Wilson Braddyll, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Inhabitants of Lancaster.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Merchants, Freemen, and Traders of the Borough of Lancaster, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the most unfeigned Attachment to your sacred Person, and to the Interests of your Royal Family.

To assure your Majesty that we will use our utmost Endeavours to promote that Unanimity so essential to the publick Welfare in the present critical Situation of Affairs, and chearfully contribute our respective Proportions of those Taxes, which the Exigencies of the Nation may render necessary.

And as we have always regarded the Commons House of Parliament as an important Branch of the Constitution, and the natural Guardian of our unalienable Rights, we humbly hope that whatever Ministers your Majesty may in your Wisdom call to the high Posts of Government, will continue to hold the Sense of that House in the same Respect as their Predecessors in Office have hitherto done, from the Æra of the glorious Revolution, to the present Period.

That your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of a happy and united People, is the Prayer of your faithful Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the Town of Kingston upon Hull has been presented to the King by William Wilberforce, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty has been pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of your Town of Kingston upon Hull, should think ourselves wanting in the Duty we owe to your Majesty, and to our Country, if, at this important Period, we forebore to express our zealous and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and the deep Sense we entertain of the Excellence of our happy Constitution, which has recently called forth the Exertions of an high and most honourable Part of the Legislature, in Support of the just and inestimable Rights of the Crown. Happy in our Experience of your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention to the true Interests of your Kingdom, we feel the firmest Confidence in the Rectitude of your Measures, and particularly in continuing to employ in your Councils Men of the most distinguished Qualities, whose Wisdom, Integrity and Virtue justly demand the Confidence of your People. Permit us, Royal Sir, most ardently to assure you of our most zealous Endeavours to support your Majesty in the Exercise of your legal Prerogative, which you have ever used for the Honour of your Crown, and the Good and Welfare of all your Subjects.

May your Majesty long enjoy a prosperous and happy Reign over a free, loyal and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, this Tenth Day of February, in the Twenty-fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Cambridge, has been presented to the King by Major General James Warwood Adeane, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of his Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Cambridge, in Common Hall assembled, this 11th Day of February, 1784.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg leave to approach your Throne, with the strongest Assurances of the most firm and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family.

We return our sincere Thanks to your Majesty for your paternal Regard to the Welfare of your People, shewn in removing from your Councils an Administration, partly consisting of Men whose System of Government hath brought this Country to the Brink of Ruin, and of others who by coalescing with them, have lessened that Confidence which the Public till that unhappy Period reposed in them.

We assure your Majesty that it is our determined Resolution (as we hope and trust it is of every Briton) to support to the utmost of our Power the due and open Exertion of every Branch of the Prerogative, constitutionally vested in you by the Wisdom of our Ancestors.

We have only to add our most sincere and hearty Wishes, that your Majesty may long enjoy a prosperous and happy Reign over a free and united People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town o Newcastle under Lyme, has been presented to the King by the Lord Viscount Trentham, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town of Newcastle under Lyme, assembled in the Guildhall of the said Town, on the Ninth Day of February, 1784.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of Newcastle under Lyme, beg Leave in this critical Conjuncture to approach the Throne with Assurances of our most cordial Affection for your Royal Person and Government, and of our sincere Attachment to the excellent Constitution of this Country.

It

It is with great Anxiety and Alarm we obſerved the Progreſs of a late Bill, which threatened not only to annihilate the Chartered Privileges of the Eaſt India Company, but alſo to endanger the State by erecting in it a Power unknown to this Government, and equally derogatory to the Honour of your Majeſty's Crown, and the Liberties of the Peop'e.

By your Majeſty's wiſe and well-timed Exertion of your juſt Prerogative in diſmiſſing from your Councils the Miniſters who moved and ſupported ſo violent a Meaſure, we are relieved from our Fears, and do now return your Majeſty our ſincere Thanks for this additional Inſtance of your paternal Care and Regard to the Rights and Intereſts of all your People.

Convinced of the Excellence of the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, we wiſh to ſee it preſerved inviolate, and free from any Innovation which may overturn it; and we beg your Majeſty to accept of our faithful Aſſurances, that no Endeavours of ours ſhall be wanting to ſupport your Majeſty in the free Exerciſe and Enjoyment of all your juſt Prerogatives, and that it is our moſt ſincere Wiſh that your Majeſty may long reign over a free, happy, and united People.

The following Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, has been preſented to the King by the Honourable George Rodney, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, aſſembled at a Meeting held purſuant to Public Notice, in the Guildhall in the ſaid Town, on the 10th Day of February, 1784.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the warmeſt Aſſurances of Zeal for your Majeſty's Government, and Attachment to your Perſon and Family.

When Attempts are made by one Branch of the Legiſlature to infringe on the juſt Prerogatives of another; when the Publick Buſineſs is interrupted by a powerful Party, who only impede it becauſe they are excluded from the chief Direction of Affairs; when your Majeſty's Miniſters are criminated without the Allegation of a Fault; and your Majeſty is dictated to in the Choice of your confidential Servants; we think it our indiſpenſible Duty to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſupport your Majeſty in the Conſtitutional Exerciſe of the juſt Prerogative of your Crown.

We are happy to aſſure your Majeſty, that the Sentiments of your People at large have been ſtudiouſly miſrepreſented; and that your Majeſty's preſent Miniſters, ſelected in your Royal Wiſdom, do enjoy the Confidence of your People for their Abilities, Integrity, and approved Virtues.

Conſcious that we enjoy, under your Majeſty's paternal Government thoſe diſtinguiſhed Bleſſings, which our excellent Conſtitution is ſo well calculated to diffuſe and perpetuate, we feel ourſelves happy in humbly expreſſing our Confidence in your Royal Wiſdom, that your Majeſty's Prerogatives will always be exerted (under the Bleſſing of Heaven) to maintain the Honour of your Crown, to fruſtrate every Attempt inimical to the Conſtitution, and to preſerve the Peace, Tranquillity, and Happineſs of your People.

[Signed by 154 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Tiverton, has been preſented to the King by John Wilmot, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Tiverton, in the County of Devon.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of your Borough and Town of Tiverton, publickly convened, are induced at the preſent Criſis, by every Motive of Duty, to approach your Majeſty with our Teſtimony of Affection for your Royal Perſon, Family, and Government.

Truly ſenſible of the Value of our exeellent Conſtitution, and of the Neceſſity of preſerving it in its Purity for the Welfare of your Subjects, and at the ſame Time convinced that an equal and well poized Co-operation of the Three Eſtates of your Realm, will conduce to the Benefit of the Whole; we humbly beg Leave to expreſs our warmeſt Thanks for your Endeavours to effect this ſalutary Purpoſe, by a ſteady Support of your own juſt and undoubted Rights.

As honeſt and dutiful Subjects, we preſume to offer to your Majeſty our Lives and Fortunes for the Removal of any Diſtreſſes that may ſurround your Throne, and for the Alleviation of any Perplexities that may lay heavy on your Royal Breaſt.

We gratefully acknowledge the Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your Government; and permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that we pray your Reign may be long in Peace over a free and happy People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Clothiers, and others, Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Weſtbury, has been preſented to the King by Samuel Eſtwick, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Clothiers, and others, Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Weſtbury, in the County of Wilts.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty!

AT the preſent alarming Criſis, we your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Clothers, and others, Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Weſtbury, in the County of Wilts, beg Leave to expreſs our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Famliy and Government.

We behold, with Surprize and Indignation, the violent and artful Attempts that hath been made to deſtroy the Balance of our free Conſtitution, by the ambitious Attempts of your late Miniſters to introduce a new and unprecedented Power into the State, inconſiſtent with the Laws of our Country, derogatory to the Honor of the Crown, and inimical to the Safety of your Majeſty's Subjects.

We thank your Majeſty for exerting your Prerogative in removing from your Throne the common Enemies of your Dignity, and your People's Freedom.

May the Almighty give Permanency to the preſent Adminiſtration, the Objects of your own Choice, whoſe private and public Conduct hitherto intitle them to our warmeſt Approbation and firmeſt Confidence. Your Majeſty, at all Times, exerting your juſt Prerogative for your People's Good, will command our Gratitude, and the Support of a free People.
